

We are pleased to report that as of July 1, 2010, redLantern LLC will merge with CollegeSource Inc. This merger brings to fruition the vision of the company owner, Harry G. Cooper, and the combined efforts of redLantern LLC and CollegeSource Inc. The companies have been working together to provide complementary products and excellent service to the higher education market since the acquisition of redLantern from Miami University in March 2009.

CollegeSource and redLantern are excited about the merger and expect a seamless transition for redLantern customers. With the merger, CollegeSource Inc. will begin offering the “redLantern suite” of products. The former employees of redLantern will continue work in the same roles and positions as before, at the same physical address.

In order to continue service on the contracts, effective as of June 30, 2010, redLantern LLC has assigned all rights and obligations under the contracts to CollegeSource Inc. The terms of the contracts will remain the same and CollegeSource Inc. has assumed all of the obligations of redLantern, LLC under the contracts. This includes all license, maintenance, subscription and service agreements executed with redLantern, LLC or assigned by Miami University to redLantern, LLC in 2009.

If you have any further questions about CollegeSource’s acquisition of the redLantern business or the assignment of your contracts, please feel free to call Jason Elwood at (513) 834-8749. Thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

Jason Elwood
President
